

'Original, poetic, folk/roots with a message for those who are willing to listen. Shayote fuses acoustic guitar pickings with unique melodic vocals Her earthly musings take the listener on a journey through the life and landscapes of a modern day gypsy.'

shayote

acoustic folk roots

Shayote is an emerging singer/songwriter of twelve years based in the Northern Territory.

Many of these years were spent travelling around Australia experiencing the life and freedom of the open road, this, along with the earth, environment, love, life, mythology and ritual are her greatest influences when writing songs

- In 2003 Shayote appears as backing vocalist on Susan Bisset's debut album 'Walking into the Fire'
- Shayote collaborated with contemporary didgeridoo artist Mark Hoffmann in 2003 and recorded two tracks on his third album 'Stomp'
- Shayote is currently the vocalist for NT didge and drum outfit 'Em Dee'
- Shayote has performed at:

Darwin Fringe Festival NT
Adelaide Fringe Festival SA
Red Earth Roots NT
Fuse Festival SA
Wignals Vintage Blues and Roots Festival WA
Lifestyle Expo WA

- Shayote has had live to air play and various tracks played nationally and locally on:

Roots n All on Triple J
ABC national NT WA SA
Three D Radio SA
Radio Larrakeyah NT

In 2005 Shayote is launching her debut ep nationally including WA and the NT She has collaborated with Mark Hoffmann on didgeridoo and percussion, Lukas Bendel on drums and JK on bass. The tracks were recorded at Crocodile Recordings

The EP has four tracks. 1. Reflekt 2. A Simple Life 3. Gypsy 4. Bleed

Reflekt has received airplay on Triple J's Roots n All programme and the ABC

A full length album is due to be released late 2005